

[tours]

[munich panoramamic city tour]

Munich offers a treasure trove of beautiful buildings, fascinating history and hidden little secrets. Explore the beauty of Munich's treasures by bus or walking tour.

These tours can be booked with Add-on inside visits.

FASCINATING CITY

By coach you will pass by the Olympic Park and BMW Welt, reach the English Garden, see the Königsplatz and the Munich's triumphal arch. In the city center see the Maximilian Street, the Opera building and the Royal Residenz. You cannot miss the Viktualienmarkt, the Marienplatz and the Frauenkirche.

As a walking tour, you will stroll down the streets of the historical center, pass by the Royal Residenz, walk towards Odeonsplatz with its Florence feeling, see the Theatine Church of St. Cajetan and the Cathedral of Our Lady. Head towards the Marienplatz and maybe you'll be lucky enough to see the bell show. Head to the traditional market Viktualienmarkt and see the famous Hofbräuhaus.

[time change]

communication | destination

[add - on]

ALLIANZ ARENA

Take a seat in the dugout, enjoy the view from executive suites and boxes, the dressing room used by FC Bayern Munich, the Business Club with VIP guest area and seating, the Players' tunnel and much more! One of the most impressive soccer stadiums in the world, not only because of the changing lights but also the outstanding architecture makes this visit unforgettable!

BMW MUSEUM

Why are BMW-cars so desirable? What does the concept of "future" at BMW mean and what are the ideas behind the BMW brand? These are questions that visitors of the BMW Museum & Welt will find an answer to. In the BMW Museum you will understand the dynamicity of this worldwide famous brand. You will appreciate the modern architecture of this place and appreciate the avant-garde design of its structures!

DEUTSCHES MUSEUM

The world's largest museum for science and technology with about 50 different thematic areas, ranging from technological evolution from the stone age to the present, astronomy, chemistry, aerospace, physics, navigation and much more. For non-specialist and specialists alike, this impressive collection will have something for all interests.

[add - on]

NYMPHENBURG PALACE

Include in your Munich city tour an inside visit in Nymphenburg palace. With its extensive palace park and the large driveway avenue, it served the Bavarian rulers of the House Wittelsbach, as a summer residence and is one of the largest and most beautiful royal palaces in Europe.

ROYAL RESIDENZ

One of the big attractions in Munich and the largest city palace of any German city. The delightful atmosphere transports the visitors to a different time as they walk through the ball rooms, concert hall and interiors. The Munich Residence served as the seat of government and residence of the Bavarian dukes, electors and kings from 1508 to 1918, today one of the most important palace museums in Europe.

KUNSTAREAL WALK

The Kunstareal offers an extraordinary diversity of museums with works ranging from Ancient Egypt, Classical Greco-Roman, Old Masters up to the present. A total of 18 museums and exhibition halls, 20 galleries, six renowned international colleges and countless cultural institutions are all in the immediate vicinity, easily accessible by foot. This cultural tour around Kunstareal takes you wandering among countless architectural and cultural highlights:

[add - on]

OLYMPIC ROOF WALK

Celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Olympic Games in Munich, your guide will take you to the Olympic Park for a first visit, then hold on to your hats because you will head to the rooftop of the Olympic Stadium, where you will learn about the architecture of the stadium, the history of the building and enjoy an amazing view.

ESCAPE ROOM

Enjoy a bit of fun and challenge in between your excursion through the city. Engage in a team activity in one of six rooms individually designed to take you to a different world. You have to solve tasks, follow tracks and find connections. You are only really good if you work together as a team and can complement each other.

[short tours]

CULINARY TOUR

Munich is famous for its traditional, mouth-watering foods. Soak up the romantic atmosphere while strolling through the quaint streets of Old Town Munich and visit the 200-year-old Viktualienmarkt local food market. You will learn a lot of the history and recent events of this place as well as background information whilst enjoying various typical specialties at different market stalls. A wide range of culinary delicacies awaits you!

BIKE TOUR

Munich is a bike friendly city. Explore the colourful heart of the city, pass the monuments of Bavarian kings, see the former bohemian district “Schwabing”, ride through the “Englischer Garten” and see famous surfer’s site.

BEER & TASTING TOUR

Experience the art of brewing up close and personal. Take in the intense scent of the original wort & taste a freshly draught beer directly from the beer tank. Home-made beers are still brewed in the Paulaner Bräuhaus today - a craftsmanship that you can take a closer look at on site and of course taste the noble drops. At the end of the tour - depending on the weather - you will visit a beer garden or a traditional restaurant together - you will also have the opportunity to eat here. The tour ends at the Hofbräuhaus.

[time change]

communication | destination

[half day tours]

CASTLE DACHAU

The picturesque gardens at Dachau Castle with its intricate pergolas, colourful flowerbeds, and its majestic castle building, create the ideal backdrop for a wonderful day excursion.

MEMORIAL SITE DACHAU CONCENTRATION CAMP

The Dachau concentration camp memorial site is located northwest of Munich on the eastern edge of Dachau. It was erected on 5 May 1965 as a memorial site and place of remembrance on the former prisoner site of the Dachau concentration camp.

AYING BEER EXPERIENCE

For an exclusive brewery tour head south to one of Munich's local breweries, full with charming bavarian tradition. Learn all the secrets that goes into crafting an Award Winning beer from the masters of brewing, learn about the history, the process and then experiment the taste of this one of a kind beer. Specially selected for you!

[time change]

communication | destination

[full day tours]

NEUSCHWANSTEIN CASTLE

Bavarians are rightly proud of their beautiful region and with the Neuschwanstein Castle the group definitely visit one of the most breathtaking highlights in Germany!

A full day excursion in the most famous fairy-tale castle. Neuschwanstein is situated just 2 hours away from Munich and offers a breath-taking view on the Bavarian Alps.

HERRENCHIMSEE & LAKE

Bavaria's biggest lake and its natural beauty are one of the gems of Bavaria. Foreign visitors arrive at the shores of the "Bavarian Sea" searching for King Ludwig II's Schloss Herrenchiemsee, the Island of the Men.

The natural und bucolic landscape of this area will impress and delight you. The best way to discover the real atmosphere pervading the islands is to start your trip as soon as possible. It is totally worth it!

LINDENHOF PALACE & OBERAMMERGAU

A visit to Linderhof castle whose first building projects had been developed in 1868, will let the people experience Bavaria's history and the beautiful scenery around. Afterwards explore Oberammergau and take a ride in the impressive mountain roller coaster.

[full day tours]

Berchtesgaden, Kings Lake and Eagles Nest

The King's Lake is known the world over for its emerald green water and unique mountain landscape. In former times only privileged dignitaries were allowed to visit Salt Mine Berchtesgaden, take the opportunity to explore this impressive location. The highlight is The Eagle's Nest is open to the public as a mountain top restaurant with a spectacular view.